Holiday Ideas

Looking for some fun things to do with the kids these holidays? Try some of these.

- Have a potluck picnic with your children's friends or other families in your neighbourhood.
- Have a popcorn party and turn it into a proper movie night!
- Go on a bushwalk.
- Do some baking. Cakes, muffins, biscuits, slice, loaves ... it doesn't matter.
- Take your children to the library and get them their very own library card.
- Blow bubbles. If you don't have a bubble wand already, you can easily make a giant bubble wand, and your own giant bubble mixture. You can also make bubble wands by cutting out the inside of an icecream container lid, from the rings around milk bottle tops, or wire coat hangers.
- Make a mobile for the garden using shells, driftwood, leaves, pine cones, and any other natural treasures you can find. You could spend the morning looking for treasure, and the afternoon making your mobiles.

THIS WEEKS' LUNCHES
