

Have Fun Year 6 Campers

Our Year 6 students left for camp at Forest Lakes today. We hope they have a safe trip and an enjoyable week. We look forward to seeing some great photos of camp. Our tired campers aim to be back by 2.30pm on Friday 6th November. We will put updates on Facebook closer to the time.

MPS Digital Art Show

Our Digital Art Show will be going live by the end of this week. I only have 1 class to go so it could even be as soon as tomorrow! Watch this space. We will be putting a wonderful Digital Display on our website of students beautiful art. It should go live by the end of this week.

Check our website www.masterton.school.nz

School Uniform

Please return all uniform (including underwear) that has been sent home with your child when accidents have occurred at school. We do our best not to contact parents at work to bring a change of clothing, but if our uniform is not returned, we are left with no option.
