PB4L WEEKLY FOCUS

Our PB4L focus this week is:
 Caring for Others

Wiki Tuatoru -Week Three

Nau mai kōanga.

We will be pleased when this cold weather has passed. Do remember to send a warm jacket to school as we like to get our tamariki outside whenever we can at break times, and it has been very cold! We are looking for extra helpers for our PMP programme in the hall on Mondays. This requires an adult to help a small group of children as they use the equipment. If you have a spare hour and a half on a Monday morning, please talk to Karen Cox or let the office know you can help. It's lots of fun. A group of senior students will head off to the ball skills tournament this week if the weather improves, so we hope that goes well for them. Watch the notices for the Performing Arts Evening as the tickets are about to go on sale and this event is usually very popular so they sell out quickly.

Student Work Samples – Room 7

Once upon a time there was a handsome man named Hunter.
He lived in Nelson.

Along came Charlotte, Piper and Caitlynn.

They were the bad guys.

The put him in a cage and they said he had to stay there for one hundred days.

On the hundredth day they let Hunter out!

Written and illustrated by Hunter Viles.

Once upon a time there was a family.

There were six people in the family.

... We should get back to the book!

The dog was so, so good.

The horse was so, so good too!

When I was a baby a witch stole me and she locked me in a room.

Ella found me.

I saw a horse with Ella.

Ella and I went on the horse.

All the wind was blowing in my and Ella's faces.

Ella, the horse and me lived happily ever after.

Written and illustrated by Anabelle Armstrong.
